

A Visit to the Mall

I must arise and go now and go to Crystal Peaks
Provisions I will but thereto last me for some weeks
Bread is just a staple [butter goes with it] and Cereals, they are good for me. They will keep me fit.

Cheese, han and onions also are my choice
they are scruptious when mixed with tartare 'soice'

Frozen veg is not preferred but, freezers must be stocked
In case of dire emergencies when my cooking, up I've cocked.

Salds, fruits and such things in my basket go, cos
I want to keep my weight down and keep a regular 'flow'.

Soaps and cleaning agents are also on my list and Sometimes there is whiskey, that's for getting 'hissed'

Patience is a virtue where checkouts are concerned and having ready money is better, I have learned.
“NO I haven't got a Nectar card” big brother's big enough
School vouchers are not my thing, I hate that kind of stuff.

Just reduce the cost, cos I just want it cheap, so
Just give me my change and out of here I'll creep.

Can't remember where the car is [the car parks are so large]
My remote isn't working and extended stays are charged.
All-in-all it's quite a job, the effort I have made, so back now to my 'Shangrila'
and my bee loud glade.
[Aplogies to W.B.Yeates]

[Bernard O'Hara]