THOUGHT FOR THE DAY.

No one knows what he is doing while he is acting rightly, but what is wrong we are always conscious.—GOTHE.

THE OUTLOOK.

RAIDS, LIVES AND LAW. The return issued by the Press Bureau today of the casualties occasioned by the London raid is calculated to stir the least emotion.

MEN AND AFFAIRS.

Stringent and stalwart in religion and in politics the Rev. Henry Robertson, theologian, social reformer, man of the people and a devoted and successful one of his kind, has just passed away.

Feeding the Enemy.

Perhaps the Germans who thought they could afford to deal with contempt the coming into the war of America take a different view today.

Commons Again Confronted with the Age-Limit.

Another Conference? This time the House of Lords is to be under consideration. The terms of the reference are to be issued shortly, but the general task to be set the new body is to consider the question of the future relationship of the two Houses of Parliament.

Soldiers' Votes.

The main business of the House after its week-end rest was the position of the bill which has been referred to the House of Commons for consideration.

British Patriots.

To the Editor "Sheffield Independent." Sir.—In reply to your issue of the 20th inst. I beg to say that I have not received your issue of the 20th inst. I have not received your issue of the 20th inst.

Drink and State Purchase.

To the Editor "Sheffield Independent." Sir.—In reply to the resolution recently passed by the committee of the House of Commons on the subject of the State purchase of drink, I beg to say that I have not received your issue of the 20th inst.

Limiting the Scope.

Another idea was that a lot of difficulty was being caused by the fact that the child was not being fed properly. It was suggested that the matter should be referred to the Local Government Board.

Waste Paper.

Mr. H. H. Hyndman has just given a trenchant analysis of the causes of the waste paper problem. He pointed out that the waste paper problem is a serious one and that it is necessary to take steps to deal with it.

HEAR ALL SIDES.

The Editor invites Letters of a Brief, plain and practical character. To the Point. Sir.—It is evidently does not strike "Out" that the motto for the war is either pay or fight.—Yours, etc.

Flag Days.

To the Editor "Sheffield Independent." Sir.—It is nearly unbelievable that anyone can bewail flag days. If "Flag Day" was precluded with shells in the trenches he would be glad to see them to be precluded with flag days and to participate in the benefits of the same.

Rival Union Claims.

To the Editor "Sheffield Independent." Sir.—In reply to your issue of the 20th inst. I beg to say that I have not received your issue of the 20th inst. I have not received your issue of the 20th inst.

THE DOVE AND THE HAWK.

The Prime Minister's discourse on the dove and the hawk as messengers of peace will probably be noted in Germany. It anticipates another day of the near future, but again he looks for the hawk and not the dove.
